Web and elearning tools: A showcase by MSPGH students and staff

Professor Rob Moodie, Dr Melissa Russell, Ms Tara Sklar, Amir Hanna and Kaushi Kogar
Melbourne School of Population and Global Health

A range of elearning tools used in teaching across the Melbourne School of Population and Global Health (MSPGH) will be showcased by staff and students. Strengths, limitations and potential applications will be presented in 5 minute 'snapshots' to be followed by an interactive discussion with the audience. A range of presentation, assessment, and interactive elearning tools will be included. Students will also present a website initiative designed to better link students to resources and each other.

Rob Moodie is Director, Teaching and Learning of MSPGH. Rob will present a snapshot of the Camtasia presentation recording elearning tool that he used in the Global Health Academy Series.

Melissa Russell is the MPH coordinator and Lecturer in Epidemiology, MSPGH. Melissa will present a snapshot of the FAIR App and website, and lessons in creating elearning resources from these technologies.

Tara Sklar is a lecturer and Senior E-Learning and Teaching Specialist with the Master of Ageing. Tara is coordinating the development of twelve online subjects in the Master of Ageing and will present a snapshot on ‘Getting more from the LMS’.

Amir Hanna is a veterinarian from Egypt, MSPGH Master of Public Health student and IT Officer/Website Administrator for the Melbourne Population Health Student Association. Amir will present a snapshot of a student website initiative, and the Adobe Connect elearning tool.

Kaushi Kogar is a MSPGH Masters of Public Health student from Thailand as well as the National Volunteer Coordinator for the Youth Empowerment Against HIV/AIDS, a sexual health promotion organisation. Kaushi will present a student’s perspective ‘snapshot’ of the use of PRAZE, a web-based student peer review tool.

Wednesday 9 April 2014
12.30 - 1.30 pm, Seminar Room 515
Melbourne School of Population and Global Health
Level 5, 207 Bourke Street, Carlton

ALL WELCOME