

Newsletter

Biophysical Society

SEPTEMBER

2014

DEADLINES

59th Annual Meeting

February 7-11, 2015
Baltimore, Maryland

October 1
Abstract Submission

October 3
Travel Award Application
SRAA Competition

January 7
Early Registration

Congressional Fellowship Application

October 14
Application Submission

Networking Event Proposals

October 30

BPS Election Results

Scarlata Voted President-Elect; Separovic Elected Secretary; Four Society Members Elected to Council

Suzanne Scarlata,
Stony Brook
University

Frances Separovic,
University of Melbourne

Suzanne Scarlata of Stony Brook University was elected President-Elect of the Biophysical Society in the 2014 Society elections. She will assume that office at the 2015 Annual Business Meeting in Baltimore, Maryland. Her term as president will begin at the 2016 Annual Business Meeting in Los Angeles, California. Frances Separovic of the University of Melbourne was elected Society Secretary. Her four-year term will begin July 1, 2015.

Four Society members were elected to Council, each for a three-year term that will begin at the 2015 Annual Meeting. They are,

Ruth Heidelberger,
University of Texas
Health Science
Center

Robert K. Nakamoto,
University of Virginia

Gabriela Popescu,
University at Buffalo,
SUNY

Erin Sheets,
University of Minnesota, Duluth

The Society is indebted to all of the candidates who agreed to run in these elections and to the over 20% of eligible Society members who participated in the election by casting their votes.

CONTENTS

Biophysicists in Profile	2
Careers	4
Biophysical Journal	6
Annual Meeting	8
Public Affairs	10

Subgroups	12
Members in the News	12
International Affairs	14
Grants and Opportunities	14
Upcoming Events	16